8th ANNUAL HONOR OUR MILITARY PATRIOTIC BOAT PARADE & CELEBRATION IN THE PARK

MONTICELLO, INDIANA JULY 7, 2012

GULF WAR VETERANSyou are invited as a group to be honored as grand marshals of the 2012 parade. You will ride the 400 passenger Madam Carroll (free) filled with veterans and soldiers currently serving and their loved ones to lead the long line of some 65 decorated boats on Lake Freeman. You will board the Madam at 8:45 a.m. on Saturday, July 7. Plenty of help will be available to get you on and off the boat.

The boat will dock at about 12:30 and then it is on to what Independence Day is all about in small town America with hot dogs, free watermelon and ice cream along with fun and free games for the whole family. There will be a lot of excitement with military flyovers, skydivers and a Dixieland Band. Let us know if you can make it and how many in your party.
